

FIRE SAFETY/EMERGENCY EVACUATION

An Ounce of Prevention

Blanc Communications, c.1982

For childcare workers. Mel Blanc's cartoon characters track dangers of:

- gasoline and other fumes
- matches
- hot water, scalding

Second half of video depicts a burn victim's treatment at Shriner's Burn Institute in Cincinnati.

Video - 24 minutes

ID Number: 0198-115

Bar-B-Q Hal

Safety Short Productions, Inc., c.1989.

Using a humorous approach, this short video demonstrates the right and wrong way to start and cook with a BBQ grill.

Video - 5 minutes

ID Number: 0293-103

Commercial Cooking

Ohio Casualty Group, c.1989.

This technically specific video covers the general rules and guidelines set out by the National Fire Protection Association regarding Standard 96 for commercial cooking equipment and use. It covers hood, duct systems, grease removal, air movement extinguishing systems, maintenance, safety requirements, installations, cooking equipment and more.

Video - 26 minutes

ID Number: 0293-141

Emergency Evacuation

Regional Learning Resources Services, St. Louis
Nursing Services.

This video provides an overview of notification protocol, emergency response techniques and procedures for charge nurse personnel and others during a fire emergency. Demonstrates physical evacuation techniques including side-by-side carry, two-person swing carry, extremity carry, four person blanket carry, one person blanket carry, one person blanket drag, pack and strap carry.

Video - 15 minutes

ID Number: 0293-166

Fire Emergencies

National Safety Council

A short overview of basic fire safety outlining preventive methods and devices to prevent fires or any injury should a fire occur. Can be beneficial for safety meetings in office, retail or home environments.

Video - 4:50 minutes

ID Number: 0195-009

Fire in the Workplace

Long Island Productions, c.1994

Emphasizes fire prevention with dramatic footage and personal accounts and covers the leading causes of workplace fires. Including electrical fires, arson, smoking, survival evacuation and extinguisher training.

Video - 20 minutes

ID Number: 0796-039

Fire in the Workplace II

Coastal Video, c.1990

Fire Safety awareness video that includes prevention, causes and survival in the workplace.

Video - 22 minutes

ID Number: 0198-105

Flashover - Point of No Return

U. S. Public Health Service, National Bureau of Standards.

This video covers fuel, heat, smoke and gases that flash over and envelope rooms and buildings in an out-of-control fire. Demonstrates a flashover out-of-control scenario in a nursing home environment.

Video - 11 minutes

ID Number: 0293-130

Heat Stress Induced by Chemical Protective Clothing

Federal Emergency Management Agency & Emergency Education Network, c.1989.

This open-ended video teleconference describes problems, exposures and solutions to heat buildup and heat stress experienced by fire fighters and emergency responders. A series of specialists in a forum and video conference around the United States discuss issues regarding chemical protective clothing. Interested parties phone in questions that are answered by this group of specialists.

Video - 1 hour (5 1-hour teleconference tapes on Heat Stress)

ID Number(s): 0892-038, 0892-039, 0892-040, 0892-041, 0892-078

Hospital Safety Series in Case of Fire

Health and Sciences Network, c.1991.

This video gives a good comprehensive overview of a hospital fire response plan including responsibilities of employees in the event of a fire. Includes rescue, announcing fire, compartmentalization, extinguishment, types of extinguishers, notification protocol, evacuation protocols, prevention and training.

Video - 15 minutes

ID Number: 0892-046

How Fast It Burned

University of Georgia-Public Safety Division

Video demonstrates how quickly a room can become filled with smoke and carbon monoxide. Flashover is demonstrated.

Stresses the importance of maintaining fire safety equipment.

Video - 22 minutes

ID Number: 0198-127

Order Out of Chaos

American Heat Video Products, Inc., with Chevron Corporation c.1992.

This video using a series of interviews with fire chiefs and emergency response personnel provides an overview of incident command systems. It describes the unified command structure, incident commander responsibilities, command post protocols including delegation of authority, span of control, accountability training, cross training, fire attack, search and rescue, tactical worksheets, etc. This video emphasizes command responsibilities of emergency responders to planning, teamwork and commitment.

Video - 24 minutes

ID Number: 0892-020

Preventing Burns and Fires

National Restaurant Association - 1992

A safety committee setting for outlining typical food service fire and burn hazards. Members discuss being prepared and avoiding burns associated with kitchen equipment, preventing fires and dealing with a fire emergency. This film addresses proper equipment and safe attire. Safe vs. unsafe practices are addressed to ensure that both customers and employees are aware of safety hazards.

Video - 17 minutes

ID Number: 0195-003

Your Guide to Emergency Planning

The Home Insurance Companies Loss Control Department.

A specific guide that identifies appropriate procedures, methods and protocols necessary to plan for and respond to various types of man-made or natural disasters. Includes fire, flood, winter storms, tornadoes and more.

Manual - 37 pages

ID Number: 0293-139